11. DOMICILE OF A PARISH: "Domicile" is a canonical term used for "residency." The term is used to facilitate the sense of belonging to a parish. If you have been working and staying in a place (more than 6 months), technically you belong to the nearest parish in that locality. For example, if you are staying and working in Petaling Jaya area, you ought to register at the nearest parish in that vicinity. You may go frequently for masses to any of the Catholic Churches but that does not mean you belong to that parish, neither can you claim that the parish where you were baptized, is the parish you belong to. The sense of belonging is governed by territory. Domicile is a canonical provision (Church Law) allowing the Parish Priest in the respective locality to administer both sacramental and spiritual needs of his parishioners within his geographical purview.
